PRIDE TRAINING Parent Resource Information Development Education

Prospective foster care parents are required to attend orientation before PRIDE Training.

PRIDE is a competency-based program which provides greater detail about the foster care system and responsibilities of foster parents.

Topics covered include attachment and loss issues, discipline, effects of abuse and neglect, sexual abuse, and the effects of fostering and adopting on the family. Sessions 1, 2, 3, 4 & 6 must be completed in order prior to being licensed .
